block south of Cosmopolitan Hotel.

CONCERT this evening.
ATTORNEY A. G. SUTHERLAND is up from Mt. Pleasant.

A VERY dangerous practice on the part of a number of young men and boys in the northwest part of town is reported. There are a great many men at work along the river and in the brush at different places there and these boys make a practice daily of prowling through the brush and shooting at birds, etc. There are also many horses and cattle and some stacks of hay, straw, etc. If the practice is not stopped some serious accident will occur—some man or some animal will be shot, or some stack set afire.

JOHN TURNER, ex-sheriff of Utah county, who has been ailing for a couple of months or more gets worse.
For some days now there have been times when he would not recognize his friends as they stood by his bedside.
When he is eased from these spells he is worrying greatly about his affairs, which wears on him mightily, and in consequence grave fears are entertained that he will not recover. A consultation of physicians was had over his case yesterday, and the sick man was given to understand that doctors, nursing or medicine could not help him if he persisted in refusing to help himself by remaining calm.

some of the masterpieces of song tonight.

By special request the "Holly Berries" operetta will be repeated in the Third ward on Saturday night. The piece will be supplemented by a roaring curtain raiser entitled "That Celebrated Mellon Case." A grand olio will follow in which will appear Messrs. Boshard and Pyne brothers, W. D. Roberts Jr. and others, concluding with "Holly Berries."

Provo's new concert orchestra will

The famous French duet, "The Brazilian Mountaineers," as sung in France by the greatest artists, and in the east with great success by M. and Mme. De Loery, will be sung at the concert tonight at the tabernacle.
This duet will be sung in French. The movements of the accompaniment represents the trot of mules through the mountains. Everybody should go and hear it.

JAMES GILBERT of Monroe, has applied in the First District court for a writ of mandamus to issue against one Thomas Cooper, a justice of the peace at Monroe, commanding Mr. Cooper to re-instate upon his docket for trial a suit he has dismissed entitled James Gilbert vs. Walter Hyatt. Mr. Gilbert alleges that on the first trial of the case the jury disagreed, that he offered a sufficient bond for costs, etc., pending a new trial which was illegally and unjustly refused; that on March 14, 1894, the justice dismissed the case, taxing the costs, $115.70, against the plaintiff, and afterwards falsely informed Mr. Gilbert's attorney, I. J.
Stewart, that the case was dismissed on March 21, 1894; that relying upon this information Mr. Gilbert and appeared before the justice to perfect an appeal of his case after thirty days time from March 14th had elapsed, and was refused the right to appeal.

ANOTHER big mining deal has been consummated and Provo and other Utah capitalists are further enriched by the fact of fair prospects before them of going on and on up the ladder of fortune with great big steps. Ed.
Loose, S. S. Jones and Reed Smoot of Provo, David Evans of Ogden, Thomas H. Cutler of Lehi and James Sharp and John Sharp of Salt Lake and others have parted with some of their shares of stock in the Sioux group of mines at Eureka, excluding the Utah, 80-000 shares in all, to George H. Robinson, superintendent of the Mammoth mine and Franklin Farrell, the multimillionaire of Ansonia, Connecticut, for the sum of $75,000.00 and the proviso that the purchasers shall within the next six months, put up a 20 stamp mill on the property, which is admirably located for the site of the plant. The company controls its own water rights and everything is adapted for the operation of a mill. The property has an almost unlimited amount of milling ores already blocked out. It is proposed to proceed at once with the carrying out of the contract, and the probabilities are that before the six months are gone the new mill will be in operation. The deal was completed in Salt Lake last evening and as soon as the papers had been signed and the transfers were made the old board of directors resigned and the new one was elected as follows: Franklin Farrell, S. S. Jones, Ira D. Wines, George H. Robinson and William H.
Bradley. Of these Mr. Farrell is president, Mr. Jones, vice-president and Mr.
Robinson, general manager.

MRS. CYRUS SMITH of the Third ward who has been seriously ailing for about two weeks now with rheumatism and other troubles, is lying in a very critical condition today.

MRS. MARY P. SILVER of Salt Lake is spending Christmas with Mr. D. P.
Felt of this city.

good photograph made, but go to the Union Block, T. E. Daniels, Jr. prop.

MARRIAGE licenses were issued today to Daniel E. Lamberson, aged 27, and Myra Jones, aged 18, both of Springville, and to Joseph A. Burgess, aged 34, and Lovina J. Hansen aged 35 both of American Fork.

LAWYER ROBINSON of Salt Lake was a pleasant visitor at THE DISPATCH office this forenoon.

ANOTHER nasty case is reported from Springville. Guy Madison, a youth 18 years of age, was before Commissioner Dudley today on a charge of fornication.
The girl in the case, Mamie Houtz, daughter of Phillip Houtz, is a native and alleges that Madison is the father of a unborn child; that the offense was committed on or about July 4th last. The particulars in this case are said to be very revolting. Preliminary hearing will be had on Saturday next at 1 o'clock.

JUSTICE WEDGWOOD has been busy the last week or so straightening up the affairs of his office, prelate justice of the peace, and now has matters in excellent shape for his successor, Charles Moisy.

Destroyed Its Own Identity.

One step from the sublime to the ridiculous. This is an old truism. It might be said also that comedy and tragedy are very near to each other—at least so argued that prince of good fellows, Nat Goodwin.

Goodwin in Delmonico's cafe one day recently. Goodwin was entertaining a number of friends with personal rumi-nations of a European trip. In a delightfully ingenious manner he made himself the butt in each story, and con-vulsed his auditors with laughter.

Finally he said: "I was walking down street the other day—that is, I was or another fellow was, it doesn't make any difference. You don't want to spoil a story on technicalities. Anyhow I or the other fellow was walking down street and chance to pass an express office."

"The expressman was loading his wagon preparatory for his afternoon round. Of a sudden the forwarding agent or whatever you call him came out with a small dog.

"Where's he going?" asked the driver.

"I don't know."

"Don't know?"

"Now."

"Why the—don't you know?"

"Now, don't get previous," said the forwarding agent. "I don't know, an it don't know, an nobody knows. It's up to its tail, that's the reason."

His auditors laughed, but Goodwin drew a long face. "I say it's pathetic," he remarked. "Think of the position of that dog. In a thoughtless moment he destroyed his own identity. It's a tragedy in real life."—New York Herald.

The Modern Mother

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
